A “typical” CSUN Undergraduate…

- is female
- 23.4 years of age
- is a transfer from a California Community College
- originates from LA County/San Fernando Valley
- graduated high school with a 3.06 GPA
- culturally (ethnically) diverse
- NOT the 1st in their immediate family to attend College¹
- has College graduated parents (or with some College)²
- has NO dependents³
- takes a full-time, reduced load (12.07 units)
- works between 11-20 hours/week²
- commutes 15-29 minutes from home to class²
- majors in business or social/behavioral science
- receives some level of financial aid assistance
- takes courses during the Day time
- graduates in 3.7 years (Upper Division Transfers)
- is moderately indebted after college ($12k)
- selected Cal State Northridge because it was their first choice and for its ideal location²

¹ Spring 1999 Student Needs and Priorities Survey (SNAPS)
² Fall 1998 Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Survey
³ College graduate parents (or with some College)

Average Time to Degree

First-Time Freshmen ............... 5.9 years
Lower Division Transfers .............. 4.2 years
Upper Division Transfers .............. 3.7 years

Enrollment by Gender

- Female .... 12,448
- Male ......... 9,112

Enrollment by Ethnicity

- 0.6% American Indian (139)
- 16.3% Other (3,517)
- 25% Latino (5,388)
- 33.3% White (7,173)
- 16.2% Asian American (3,489)
- 8.6% African American (1,854)

Enrollment by Attendance

- Full-Time (16,081)
- Part-Time (5,479)

Full time 4-Year Target (16 Units Plus) .... 2,374
Full-Time Reduced Load (12-15 Units) .... 13,707
Part-Time (Less than 12 Units) .... 5,479